Librarian's Column

This edition of the Librarian's Column is edited by:

(Daphne has a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and worked as a professional nurse for many years before receiving her MLIS in 2013).

Spending time with my family (and pug dog), cooking and reading are things I enjoy.

Biographies are books I especially enjoy. I recently read, "The Lives of Margaret Fuller" and "Zelda: A biography." I also enjoy watching documentaries and historic films. It is a great way to study history from many perspectives.

Wilson Library has an extensive film collection available. From streaming online to DVDs and VHS, you can find historical films, educational films, popular movies, classical films and more.

To browse the collections, click on the 'media' tab from the library's homepage. Streaming videos will also display in a 'books' search. The library has 42 databases for streaming videos. You can find many resources for both research and entertainment.

Archives Month – October 2017

In October, Wilson Library sponsored Archives Month, a celebration of La Verne's heritage. Events included a treasure hunt to historic locations across campus, an exhibit on Bibles from the school's Brethren founders, and a poster session showcasing student research in the Archives. Thanks to those students, faculty, and staff who made Archives Month such a success!

Makerspace Open House

The Makerspace held an open house in September for students, faculty, and staff to learn about previous projects and the equipment and tools that are available. During the open house Makerspace Tech Student Assistants demonstrated how to use:

- 3D pen
- Makey Makey
- 3D printer
- Adafruit
- Laser Cutter
- Button Maker
- Raspberry Pi
- Cricut
- Arduino
